

Creating a Financial Crisis Plan

Step 1: Before beginning your financial crisis plan, it can be helpful to first identify the ways in which your mental health is affected by your current financial issues or stressors. After this, identify the ways in which your finances are affected by your mental health, physical health, addiction/ substance use, and/or treatment issues.

How Financial Issues Affect Me	Never	Rarely	Sometimes	Often
I experience anxiety.
My sleep is interrupted.
I feel hopeless.
I can't purchase needed medication or access services.
I can't buy the things I want.
I do without necessities.
I feel ashamed.
I worry about my future.
My relationship with my partner is strained.
I dread (or avoid) opening mail or answering the phone.
I feel out of control with my spending.
I have to work more than I would like just to pay my bills.
I can't go out with my friends or take a vacation.
I feel powerless over my finances.
